Grand Trunk Deal Is Ratified After Heated Discussion

LONDON.—The shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway, after listening to heated criticism, finally assented to the terms of agreement with the Dominion Government. A dozen shareholders held a meeting after and passed a resolution protesting against the terms.

Ottawa.—Ratification of the Grand Trunk agreement by the shareholders in London will be followed by the appointment of a committee of management. The committee will be composed of five persons. Two will be appointed by the Grand Trunk, two by the Dominion Government, and the fifth will be appointed by the other four. The committee of management will endeavor to ensure the operation of the Grand Trunk system in harmony with the Canadian National Railways, the two systems being treated as one system. The committee will continue to act until the Grand Trunk preferred and common stocks are vested in the government.

A board of arbitrators will also be appointed to determine the value of the preference and ordinary shares. One arbitrator will be appointed by the government, and one by the Grand Trunk. The third will be the Chief Justice of the exchequer court of Canada. The arbitrator award will be met by the issue of a new non-voting four per cent guaranteed stock.

The government will also guarantee the interest on the present guaranteed stock, of which there is $25,000,000 pounds sterling outstanding. Holders of this stock, however, will surrender their voting rights.

U. S. Farmers May Strike

"Won't Work 16 Hours a Day to Feed Highly Paid, Short-Hour Urban Consumer"

Washington.—The farmers of the United States may go on strike. Recently questionnaires were sent by the Post Office Department all over the country to farmers in connection with a move to bring the producer and consumer closer together by extending parcel post facilities. Some 70,000 replies have been received. The majority of the farmers complain bitterly of shortage of labor and the high wages they are forced to pay, and declare they will reduce or suspend production because they do not have time to labor fourteen to sixteen hours a day to supply the necessities of life to "highly paid, short-hour urban resident consumers."

Trenton, N.J.—In the hope of securing a beer bill for New Jersey that would stand the United States supreme court test, Senator Pileggi, of Essex, on behalf of the Republicans in control of the legislature, introduced a measure localizing the manufacture, sale and transportation in New Jersey of beverages of 2.75 per cent alcohol by weight, which would be about 3.40 per cent by volume.

Germany Defiant Over Trials Of War Criminals

Berlin.—Commenting on the allied note to Germany, making concessions regarding the trial of Germans accused of war crimes, the Tagblatt says: "The awakening of the democratic spirit in England and Italy has had its effect in inducing the leaders of the essence to recede from their previous attitude on the extradition of criminals." Vaguettes state that the note is now free of malice and other obstructions, which are likely to lead to complications later, but it declares the document represents the victory of sanity.

The Vossische Zeitung expresses belief that neither the German nor the outside statesmen could have acted differently in the premises. It thinks the entire world will be abstaining from interference with the trials Germany is to hold, as the allies will thus be spared "the ignominious defeat awaiting them in case they attempt to reaffirm their charges before an unbiased court."

The Pan Deutsche Zeitung finds the note unacceptable, and demands that it be met with an unambiguous "No."

Protest From Railroad Workers

Declare Re-organization Bill Was Destructive to Constitutional Privileges

Washington.—Organized railroad workers and union labor in general, contending that the reformed railroad reorganization bill was destructive of the employees' constitutional privileges and liberties, called upon congress to defeat the measure in its entirety. At the close of an all-day conference representatives of the fifteen railroad unions made a unanimous appeal to congress making this suggestion.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Frank Morrison, secretary, attended the conference. The memorial embodies this declaration:

"The bill deprives citizens employed upon railroads of the inviolable rights to enjoy gains of their industry. The return to capital are based upon an arbitrary basis, the rate which the public pay and wages upon which labor must receive, must be commensurate to the value of the labor based for capital. This act makes the public and labor subservient to capital."

Lumber Shortage Threatened

Caused by Steady Shipment of Canadian Supply to the United States

Ottawa.—The board of commerce has been asked to consider the problem of a threatened lumber shortage in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, caused by the steady shipment of the Canadian supply to the U.S. American firms are said to be converting their own supplies and buying in large part of the visible supply in Western Canada for their own use.

H. W. Whittle, K.C., counsel for the board of commerce in Winnipeg, telegraphed to the board of commerce here as follows:

"The chief inspector of crown timber agencies reports that a serious shortage is being created in lumber supplies in the three prairie provinces by United States concerns buying up large valuable stocks for shipment south. The United States firms are holding American lumber from their own markets for a rise in prices and are dealing largely in the normal and spiritual factors in national education, was the keynote of a speech delivered by the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, to the delegates to the National Council of Education here.

Dr. Perinelle, of Quebec, urged for a serious consideration of the bilingual question. If they were to have peace and harmony it was absolutely necessary that they give the French-Canadians the right to preserve their mother tongue.

The tollstone is more frequently broken than any other house in the body.

Moravian Town, Ont.—George Smolick, Canada's most noted Indian sniper for three years in France, was frozen to death near his home on the reserve. Smolick was the first Indian to enlist after the outbreak of the war, joining the Canadian army on August 6th 1914. In his capacity as a sniper, he is credited with having killed over a hundred Germans, but he himself stepped without a wound. The coroner decided that an inquiry was unnecessary.

Italy Bill Has Food Cards

Rome.—Owing to the high rate of exchange, the difficulty of securing transportation and the scarcity of supplies, the council of ministers has decided to institute rationing for the necessities of life under the same conditions as during the war. Cards, therefore, will be required for bread, rice, macaroni, coal, and fats.

Changes In U. S. Immigration Laws

Would Make It Necessary For Aliens to Report and Register Every Year

New York.—Announcement of the immigration law as it is to be revised to register and report once a year to some federal office is one of the several recommendations made by the National Republican Club by its committee on immigration.

"On report of the laws in certain western and southern states that permit aliens to vote who have only declared their intention to become citizens, through regulation of the foreign language press in the United States and creation of a permanent immigration commission to study the effects of such laws and collectively foreign immigration were other recommendations."

Russian Situation Bad

Aliy Officials Fearful of Bolshevik Triumph in Southern War Area

Constantinople.—The situation in Southern Russia is so uncertain that the allied officials are fearful of a general Bolshevik triumph, however, even if the Bolsheviks are to be the victors in the Caucasus and Red forces from the outside.

General Scudiloff is at Sebastopol commanding the volunteer force which held the Crimean isthmus. The surrounding legations are from the United States, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom. The Bolsheviks may approach on the sea. Sebastopol harbor is cluttered with useless shipping. Ten thousand persons are registered for sailing to the west, while 11,000 more are on ships from Odessa without adequate food or medicine. Typhus is raging among the refugees. It is impossible to take away the population, as command of allied warships in the harbor apparently lack authority for such action.

An agreement has been reached between General Denikin and the Cossack supreme council. The Cossacks are giving their wholehearted support, but the Dow and Kuban Cossacks are making reservations which will weaken the anti-Bolshevik strength and will make the Crimean situation doubtful.

Canada's Favorable Outlook

Duke of Devonshire Paints a Bright Picture of Future of Dominion

Ottawa.—That Canada has every reason to be gratified with the present outlook, more particularly now that educationists were attacking the heavy task of carrying on a huge campaign to develop and strengthen the moral and spiritual factors in national education, was the keynote of a speech delivered by the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, to the delegates to the National Council of Education here.

Noted Indian Sniper Dead

Credited With Having Killed Over a Hundred Germans

Moravian Town, Ont.—George Smolick, Canada's most noted Indian sniper for three years in France, was frozen to death near his home on the reserve. Smolick was the first Indian to enlist after the outbreak of the war, joining the Canadian army on August 6th 1914. British Navy Can Cope With Any Emergency

Manchester Guardian Ridicules Idea of Amalgamating the Ships

London.—Dismissing editorially Admiral Jellicoe's hint, the Manchester Guardian says it exerted a good deal of controversy in Canada, where the newspapers said that this might suggest a special building program for the Dominion and a plan for amalgamating the ships of the British navy if the emergency should arise.

"No one should believe that any such foolish scheme is contemplated," continues the Guardian. "No emergency to begin with, is conceivable, with which the British navy is not amply adequate to cope, and even if it were not so, the method of shaping and directing naval policy from Whitehall for the dominions would be the worst imaginable to meet the need. It cannot be too clearly realized that the conditions which help which the ship overseas nations have accorded to the allied cause. So far from making the centralization, the imperial policy has given the separate members of the Commonwealth a title as they never before held toward their own destination."

"While the Dominion policy is against the inclusion as it is in the plans of imperialism, and there could be no error of statement at this time than to imagine they would meet a scheme for putting armed forces at the disposal of the imperial council, with anything but profound suspicion."

British Watching Bolshevik Agents

Home Secretary Says Particulars Ought Not to Be Published

London.—The Home Secretary, Edward Shortt, stated in the house that the activities of Bolshevik agents in this country were receiving careful attention, but that it was not in the public interest to publish particulars. This was in reply to the question as to whether his attention had been called to the fact that the underground activities of Bolshevik agents here had greatly increased of late, whether the police had recently seized large quantities of propaganda, and if any newspapers and British officials were being subverted by Soviet money.

Wilson Replies To Note On Adriatic Question

Washington.—President Wilson has prepared and sent to the state department a reply to the note presented on the Adriatic question. He is understood to have stated the position of the United States government with a degree of finality.

The original draft as prepared by Mr. Wilson was sent to Acting Secretary of State Polk for his personal study, as he was on the head of the American mission when the Adriatic decision of December 9 was reached at Paris, and is therefore familiar with all the preliminary negotiations. The president is understood to have adhered to the position taken in his note of February 10, in which he informed the allies that if they were to proceed to a settlement of the Adriatic question without the participation of the United States Government a situation might be created where the United States might have to consider whether it could be a party to the treaty of Versailles, and the Franco-American pact.

While conciliatory, the premier's reply to this original note was argumentative.

Mr. Wilson in his answer is understood to have made the same point by point, and is believed to have again called attention to the policy of self-determination as enunciated in his fourteen points and his other declarations during the war which were accepted by the Central Powers, as the basis for peace.

Although it made clear that the United States Government has not changed the position it took when the original Adriatic agreement was made at Paris, the president's note is not regarded as the final chapter in the negotiations. The premier's reply to the original communication, are said to have left the way open for agreement along the lines provisionally accepted by the United States, and with the receipt of the United States note it will be for them to decide whether the situation previously sent to Jugo-Slavia embodies the sentiments to which the United States did not subscribe will stand.

Indorses British Seaman Fund

President Wilson Hologates Part Played by British Seamen in the War.

New York. — "I am very glad indeed to have an opportunity to add my voice to the tribute," President Wilson writes in a letter received at the national headquarters of America's national tribute to British merchant seamen, 665 Fifth Avenue. The organization is organizing a nation-wide movement to raise a large fund in the United States to aid the 30,000 British civilian sailors who came out of the war maimed and disabled.

President Wilson's letter says of the British merchant seamen: "Along with our gallant seamen, they have rendered a service to humanity in the great war which has just ended which enrolls them among the true servants of freedom and civilization. I am sure that I am speaking, when I say this, for the people of the United States, and particularly for the American seamen who have taken a like part in the great enterprise of liberty."

Medicines Seize Property.

El Paso. — Forty-five hundred acres of farming and timber lands valued at $112,500 (gold) belonging to Canadian and United States companies, have been ordered condemned and taken over by the state government of Chihuahua under article 27 of the main constitution. John C. Hager, general manager of the Bahi-... this action, as were the Madera company officials.

Bolsheviki Boulevard

One of Most Interesting Spots in New York at Luncheon Hour. Lower Fifth Avenue from the Waldorf to the Elgin building is one of the most interesting spots in New York at the luncheon hour. Some have named it Bolsheviki Boulevard. The sidewalks on both sides of the street are crowded with young foreigners who step out of the side streets from the skirt and suit and mill factories.

The consumption of cigarettes in this area during the hour reaches the million mark. Old men, middle aged and the young smoke fearful smelling cigarettes. A hundred languages from Little to Hindustani are heard.

They gather in little groups and always there is an argument. Hands wave wildly, and now and then coats are removed and a free for all scrap ensues.

Weaving in and out of the crowd is a steady procession of dark-skinned girls with healthy red cheeks and jet black hair who enter with the men, and a hurdy gurdy plays a popular air, perhaps there is an impromptu dance in the middle of the street.

It is a milling, jostling crowd and makes one miss the New York Mr. the Jewish Morning Journal, and other papers in foreign languages make a tidy sum. The foreigners like the papers with the screaming headlines. A circulation manager once tried to send a group of boys with the crowd with a stand evener paper to see what would happen. Not one copy was sold.

Sneaky young men in checkered suits and striped coats sometimes start a dice game in a doorway. Lookouts are posted and at a given signal the game ends and they wander off nonchalantly—winking knowingly to their brethren.

Every block has its strike. But despite the labor troubles in the Clock and Suit Belt, the workers seem to be prosperous. Many made as high as $85 a week. And when it is considered that they have been in this country only a few years and that many do not even speak the English language, it is well high remarkable.

Their Worth Capital.

Paris. — Premier Clemenceau has cited the city of Paris in army orders as follows: "The city of Paris, a capital magnificently worthy of France, animated by patriotic faith which never faltered, lore with firm and smiling courage frequent bombardments by aircraft and long range guns from 1914 to 1918, and has remained deathless thanks to her glory."

Every time a man's neighbors kick it makes him sore.

The Pathos Of Devastation

France Had Visible Aspect of Having Been Bled White.

France's loss of manpower is one of the obvious things. Six months after the armistice there were women conductors upon the street cars, women working about the railroad yards, women everywhere in the fields.

France had a visible aspect of having been bled white. Men along in the forties could be seen in soldier uniforms and everywhere there seemed an actual shortage of human power. It is said to remember that during the war the population of France, quite aside from all military losses, showed a decrease of 800,000—800,000 more deaths than births.

I traversed the whole distance of the French front. The pathos of that devastated territory it beyond words, the all but homeless people camping in wrecked buildings with windows boarded up with paper. Patient peasants toiling northward with scanty furnishings for the home they hoped to return to, to find perhaps a sign when one had come fresh from the regions toward which they were going and knew that no roof stood in all the land.

Canada's Wheat Place.

In average yield in bushels per acre of wheat in the great wheat growing countries of the world, Canada fourth among eleven countries. The United Kingdom is first with 31.9 bushels, Germany next with 21.6 bushels, Austria third with 20.2 bushels, and Canada fourth with 20.3 bushels per acre, according to statistics compiled by the Department of the Interior.

Recalls a Tragedy.

Captain of a British collier and two men by Afghans in the Khyber region recalls the terrible tragedies connected with that district in 1841-42, when the British army, the evacuation of a British column in Kabul, and a later survivor coming through—Hamilton Spectator.

Telegraph Statistics. The number of land messages handled by telegraph organizations in Canada in the year ended June 30, 1917, was 1,817,517, as compared with 1,685,526 in 1916. Cablegrams numbered 1,084,656, as compared with 1,134,905 in 1916. Employees in the service of telegraph organizations numbered 7,100, of which 3,996 were male and 406 female operators. Other officers and employees numbered 2,608. Salaries and wages amounted to $2,274,450, as compared with $2,099,230 in 1916. The aggregate of salaries and wages in 1917 was equal to 72.2 per cent of operating expenses ($2,243,959), as compared with 68.9 in 1916, as stated in the Canada Year Book.

Would Burn Zeppelins.

Coblentz. — Germans in charge of twenty-four Zeppelins near Berlin have threatened to burn them rather than deliver them to the allies as required by the peace treaty, according to information obtained by the American army authorities here, it was learned. The Zeppelins are of 25 tons capacity and can fly from Berlin to San Francisco, according to German sources. Several were built to carry forty persons.

Coal Strike Affecting Threshing.

Regina, Sask. — Hon. C. A. Dunning has telegraphed Hon. G. D. Robertson that the coal strikes in Alberta have caused a serious shortage of coal and that unless steam coal is available quickly, many steam threshing outfits will be idle.

Livestock Prices

Are Normal

Cattle Purchase by Manitoba Government is New Delay.

Winnipeg. — As the result of information received by Hon. Valentine Winkler, provincial minister of agriculture, purchase of cattle by the government from the farmers of Alberta will be considerably delayed. A wire received from one of the provincial agents at Calgary stated that at the present time the cattle market was normal and that prices were being well maintained. The message continued by saying that the farmers of Alberta were counting considerably on the government having absorbed the many of them while holding on to their stock in the hope that they would be able to carry them through the winter as a result of the government's assistance.

It is conservatively estimated, however, that seventy-five per cent. of the stock south of the Red River will have to be sold, the telegram adds. It is not expected, however, that the farmers will commence to sell for at least a month.

Germany May Release Russians.

Paris. — Marshall Foch appeared before the supreme council Saturday afternoon in connection with the discussion of the Russian prisoners. The condition of the Bulgarian army was also taken up. The council decided to inform Germany that all restrictions on the movement of Russian prisoners held in Germany have been lifted. Germany may now release such prisoners. There are between 200,000 and 250,000 Russian prisoners in Germany.

Carson's Advice.

Sir Edward Carson told the United States to mind its own business. He said the United States ought to mind its own business. The business was neglected these days, particularly by Americans. We are inclined to mind everybody's business but our own. We are encouraged to mind our own to keep us busy for the next ten years if we would attend to it—Chicago Tribune.

MONEY ORDERS

Weak Wheat of England Requires Mixing With the Strong Wheats

The baking strength of Canadian wheat is what commends it the most to the English trade. The weak wheats of England require mixing with the strong wheats of Canada. As long as the Dominion produces wheat that will answer this purpose, so long will Canada's wheat be popular with the English miller. There is only one way in which Canada could weaken her reputation for the production of wheats of high baking strength, and that is by the individual grower shifting his attention from the recommended and well-known varieties of Canadian wheat to unknown sorts which have not been thoroughly tested and whose baking strength established according to a recent statement by the Dominion Cerealist, C. E. Saunders, Department of Agriculture.

"Well, he happened to paddle by in his canoe while the girls were waiting there, and he saw that Rosa and promptly fell in love with her. He knew that they were waiting for him, he climbed the wall several times and managed to slip up and throw out his arms to her. It was his first opinion that he had kissed Rosa, but he hadn't even seen her yet."

"That Hassan person never looked right to me," Ruggles said.

"I saw him," Miss Elliot said. "He was a very nice fellow, but he was not as they were now going, but that he is in a hurry, wherever he goes, he is in a hurry."

"Bubbi," he would not mind remaining here, but he had been over for two or three days, and he had been over for two or three days, and he had been over for two or three days."

Hemp Possibilities In Manitoba

A Huge Hemp and Cordage Industry May Be Developed

Dr. W. J. Harington, a member of the Manitoba Legislature, is of the opinion that Manitoba may become one of the world's largest hemp-producing districts, and as a result a huge hemp and cordage industry may be developed in this province.

"Hemp grows in Dakota during the summer," he says, "was from 12 to 14 feet high when harvested, and I am given to understand that the yield in relation to the seed used was as great, if not greater, than is to be found in any part of the world where the industry has been established for years. There is an opportunity here for Manitoba to come to the front as a rope, twine, cordage and paper manufacturing province, as all these things are manufactured of hemp fibre, and I would urge upon the government the necessity of giving careful attention to the encouragement of the industry."

Deposition From The Pas Board of Trade Appears Before Manitoba Legislature

In the Manitoba legislature the member heard a deposition from the Pas board of trade, interested in the development of northern Manitoba. The vital necessity to this part of the province and to Western Canada, the completion of the Hudson Bay railway was urged, and J. A. Campbell, M.P. for Northern, in supporting the claim of the deponent, said that in this year there would have to be a definite decision as to who should have the natural resources of the development of northern Manitoba was being delayed and interrupted, he declared, by the present manœuvre of state affairs, and he expressed himself as in favor of the natural resources being handed over to the province, as it would be more directly concerned in their effective development.
